CELEBRATING 100 YEARS!

FRANK WORDEN WOOD SR.

Frank Wood, Printer Here 47 Years, Dies

Funeral services for Frank Worden Wood Sr., 69, owner and operator of the Wood Printing Company and a Dallas resident for forty-seven years, will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. George's Episcopal Church, 1729 South Beckley.

The Rev. F. E. Jarrett, rector, will be in charge. Burial will be in Restland Memorial Park.

Wood, who was born in Cooke County, died Sunday in a Dallas hospital.

He had owned and operated his own printing company at 1810 Ervay since he moved to Dallas forty-seven years ago. He made his home at 2626 West Brooklyn.

A trade journal correspondent for Billboard, Southwest Tobacco and Radio and Television News magazines, he was also active in the former Oak Cliff Little Theater. He was a member of the Mustang Club.

These are just a few of the exciting memories from 100 years of business in Dallas. I have lived through quite a few of them, and "Thanks" to you, our great customers, we have made it this far. We have enjoyed so many of your friendships. They will last a lifetime. With everyone's help, we are ready for the next 100 years.

My Prayers and Thanks to All of You, Frank Wood, President
